

ANOTHER YEAR OF FANFARE FOR RICHMOND

Richmond is making national and global headlines with such frequency these days that it is becoming difficult to keep track of which media sources ranked us on which lists this year, or awarded us with which titles. Proud residents of the region certainly have not run short on news to share on Richmond's accolades this year.

Here is a recap on the region's accolades of 2016:

Accolade

Source

Top 10 city for global trade in the U.S.	Global Trade Magazine
9th, Best Cities for Foodies	American City & Country
1 st Place in Mayor's Climate Protection	U.S. Conference of Mayors
Named a Priority City to connect youth to the great outdoors	Let's Move! Outside
Named Tree City U.S.A. (for 25 th Consecutive Year)	Arbor Day Foundation
Named Playful City U.S.A.	KaBOOM!
Ranked #47 of the top 50 Invest Health cities	Invest Health
Ranked 3 rd internationally in Best Places to Travel	Travel & Leisure
Ranked 8 th in Top 10 Places to Live and Work as a Moviemaker	Movie Maker
Ranked as nation's 4 th Hottest Housing Market	Zillow
Named one of 20 Best Places in America to Start a Business	CNBC.com
Named among America's 50 Best Running Cities	Runner's World
Named a Top City for Creatives	Thrillist
Ranked #7 on America's Favorite Places Survey	Travel & Leisure
Named The Modern Cultural Capital of the South	Men's Journal
Ranked in top Best Places to Live in the U.S.A.	U.S. News
Ranked among The 10 Trendiest U.S. Cities You Can Still Afford to Buy In	Realtor.com
Named a top destination for food travel	National Geographic
Carytown named one of the Top 15 Cool Streets Across the U.S. and Canada	Cushman & Wakefield
Richmond's Hanover Ave. named one of the Best Places to Trick or Treat	Wall Street Journal